

PLANNED GIVING

Have you considered including Kay Meek Centre in your will?

leave a legacy of the performing arts for your family, your friends, and your community.

Planned giving is making the decision today to provide for Kay Meek Centre's future. From creating a trust while you are living to including Kay Meek Centre in your will – a planned gift allows you to make a significant statement of support, often unlocking greater income while securing significant tax benefits. These can include gifts of bequests, retirement funds, stocks and securities, gifts-in-kind, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, gifts of residual interest and life insurance.

Donors who contribute through a planned gift or make a provision for Kay Meek Centre in their estate plans secure membership into the Encore Legacy of Kay Meek Centre. Members of the Encore Legacy will receive lifetime acknowledgement in all performance programs and the souvenir book, as well as an invitation to attend a special Encore Legacy event each year.

There are many different ways to setup and direct planned gifts. To start a conversation about your philanthropic goals, please contact Gail Johnson, Development Manager, Corporate Relations at 604-921-9544 or email support@kaymeekcentre.com
